Spend a week cruising the Caribbean with the biggest names in today's jazz.

BLUE NOTE AT SEA is a collaboration among the legendary Blue Note Jazz Clubs, Blue Note Records and the world leader in jazz cruises, Entertainment Cruise Productions and features the most renowned contemporary jazz performers in the world.

ROBERT GLASPER

A jazz pianist with a knack for mellow, harmonically complex compositions that also reveal a subtle hip-hop influence, called by Interview Magazine "the ideal flag-bearer for the new jazz era."

KAMASI WASHINGTON

His mass appeal makes him this generation's torchbearer for progressive, improvisational music that opens the door for young audiences to experience music unlike anything they had heard before

CHRISTIAN MCBRIDE

The most in-demand bassist of his generation. McBride consistently combines his deft musicianship with a warm showmanship that transforms his passion into infectious joy.

DAVID SANBORN

With 24 albums, six Grammy Awards, eight Gold albums and one Platinum album, Sanborn has worked in many genres which typically blend instrumental pop, R&B and lately, more and more traditional jazz.

MARCUS MILLER

Winner of two Grammy® Awards, multi-instrumentalist and world-renowned bassist, a highly gifted composer and producer, Marcus Miller can do it all.

GREGORY PORTER

An artist whose music is at once timeless yet utterly of its time, Porter has solidified his standing as his generation's most soulful jazz singer-songwriter.

MELODY GARDOT

This international best-selling singer, songwriter and musician's extraordinary voice, and underlying attitude, is a rare combination of natural talent and musical sophistication.

Join them and dozens of other world-class musicians for seven days of non-stop music on
